MICRO SPICULE TECHNOLOGY

BIOTECHNOLOGICAL PEELING - FILLING EFFECT

+ 18, all skin types

This biotechnological peel combines four hyaluronic acids of different molecular weights, peptides, and hydrolysed sponge spicules, a unique natural component, to regenerate the stratum corneum, fill in wrinkles, and promote a marked anti-ageing effect.

Hydrolysed sponge spicules: an innovative ingredient derived from hydrolysed sponge spicules (Spongilla sp.). It improves transdermal delivery. The small, sharp spines of the spicules create deep punctures in the skin, facilitating the penetration of active ingredients into its deeper layers.

A combination of four types of hyaluronic acid (HA) with different molecular weights reach the different layers of the skin simultaneously, providing a holistic filling action (increases water content and reduces TEWL). Increases water content and reduces TEWL.

Argireline is a synthetic peptide that relaxes the facial muscles to reduce the appearance of expression lines. It is produced by chemical synthesis. With the help of the spicules, it reaches the deeper layers of the skin, achieving an anti-wrinkle effect similar to Botox.

DIAMOND LIFT PRO

COSMETIC LIFTING

+ 30 años, todo tipo de piel, incluso sensible.

Professional treatment for skin rejuvenation with luxury ingredients in synergy. Achieve a unique lifting effect through cell renewal, returning vitality and elasticity to the skin.

- Increased luminosity, energised and radiant skin.
- Reduced signs of fatigue.
- Smoother and more hydrated skin.
- Younger and softer skin.
- Fewer wrinkles.

Key ingredient of the line: Diamond Sirt Powder is a biometric peptide conjugated with diamond particles that helps prevent premature ageing by stimulating the synthesis of sirtuins (SIRT-1), a type of anti-ageing protein.

Based on a delivery system that optimises biodistribution and improves the bioavailability of anti-ageing active ingredients, MVP Diamond Sirt favours the stabilisation, solubility and bioavailability of the active ingredient over time to enhance skin functionality and reduce oxidative damage that causes premature ageing.

With this release system we can increase this bioavailability up to 90 times compared to the half-life of a free peptide in the skin.

TRIACIDOS

DERMA PEEL PRO. CHEMICAL PEELING

+ 25. All skin types.

Active ingredients: Glycolic Acid and Lactic Acid.

Corrective technology that reduces deep wrinkles, restores vitality and brightens the face.

Highly effective treatment for dark spots and wrinkles.

GLYCOLIC ACID: This is an AHA that acts by exfoliating the superficial layers of the skin, helping to accelerate its renewal.

LACTIC ACID: This is an AHA that also acts as a powerful and effective exfoliant, although it is slightly milder than glycolic acid and is highly recommended for dry skin as it improves the skin's lipid barrier and has the ability to attract water, preventing moisture loss.

ACRYLIC ACID COPOLYMER: Although not an acid in itself, it has the property, together with other gelling agents, of increasing the viscosity of lactic and glycolic acids to improve their action.

METHYL NICOTINATE: An ingredient with a unique action, a "cellular turgescence" or "subcutaneous micromassage" of heat and cold, which favours the effect of microcirculation activation and helps to improve the effectiveness of lactic and glycolic acids.
